

TERMS.

The WEEKLY ROUNDABOUT is published every Saturday, at one dollar per annum, invariably in advance.

Six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents. Money may be sent by post-office money order, or registered letter, at our risk.

Notices of Marriages, Births, and Deaths inserted free of charge. Obituary notices will be charged for at our regular advertising rates.

The ROUNDABOUT can always be had for three cents per copy at Barrett's News Depot and at Ben. Marshall's Post-office News Depot.

A good sized crowd of country people are in town today.

Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Wolfe, of Indiana, are visiting friends in Frankfort.

A good lodge of Good Templars was organized at Peak's Mill last Monday night, by Mr. Goyen, of North Fork.

Rev. J. B. Tharp will preach at the South Frankfort Baptist Church, to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, and at night at 8. All are invited.

Mr. Robt. W. Tilford left this morning for Elizabethtown, where he will spend a few days with friends, after which he will go to St. Louis, Mo., to engage in business.

Cold weather and the approaching gay season keep the Frankfort merchant tailors busy. Berberich has a full force at work, day and night, and is turning out some of the noblest suits ever seen in Frankfort.

Mrs. Jas. Rogers, of this city, went to the country to visit her father's family this week, and on her return home the horse shied to one side of the road, when, opposite the Feeble-minded Institute, running the buggy up on a pile of rocks, throwing her out and breaking her arm.

Ja-se-pori ware is the latest and most beautiful novelty in the market. Mr. O. S. Walcutt will open a large lot of it the first of next week, together with a quantity of Japanese ware, of all the latest and most elegant patterns. Nothing is nicer for a Christmas present. Call and examine it if you want something that is real nice.

Mr. J. Stephen Macklin, son of the late John Macklin, died this morning at 4 1/2 o'clock, after a long illness. He had been a sufferer from that dread disease, consumption, which finally gained the mastery over him, and deprived him of life in his early manhood. His funeral will take place from his mother's residence, on North Elkhorn, at 1 1/2 o'clock, P. M., tomorrow.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers of Kentucky Edifice Institute on Monday afternoon, Judge W. P. D. Bush was elected President to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Alex. Julian, and Capt. Walcutt was elected a manager in the place of G. C. Watson, resigned. The Board as now organized is composed as follows: W. P. D. Bush, President; G. B. Macklin, H. Berry, Grant Green, W. J. Chinn, J. L. Rodman, S. Black, Capt. J. Walcutt, J. G. Watchitt, Managers; G. B. Macklin, Treasurer; J. N. Crutcher, Secretary.

The liquor-seller may say he has a right to carry on his business, provided he is responsible for damages, but he cannot bring back the dead from the grave and the damned from hell, put there by his business.—Good Templars' Advocate.
